

ROY ISTVAN
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL Experience: 4th Year (4th with Eagles)
College: Southern Connecticut State Hometown: Wallingford, PA

A coaching veteran with 33 years of experience, Roy Istvan enters his fourth season as the Philadelphia Eagles’ assistant offensive line coach.

With the Eagles, Istvan has helped the offensive line earn a combined five Pro Bowl appearances and three All-Pro honors. He also supported the fourth offensive line in team history to feature three Pro Bowlers (Brandon Brooks, Lane Johnson, and Jason Kelce) during the 2019 season.

In 2021, Istvan assisted a unit that paved the way for the top rushing offense in the league, as Philadelphia ranked first with a franchise record in rushing yards (2,715). The Eagles also led the NFL in rushing first downs (163) and yards before contact per rush (2.3).

Prior to joining Philadelphia’s staff, Istvan served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Keiser University (Fort Lauderdale, FL) during the program’s inaugural season in 2018.

Istvan spent the 2014-16 seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cornell following a six-year stint at Rhode Island, where he served as the offensive coordinator (2011-13) and offensive line coach (2008-10). In addition, he was the offensive coordinator at the Milford Academy (New Berlin, NY) from 2006-07 after spending five seasons as the offensive coordinator (2004-05) and run game coordinator/offensive line coach (2001-03) at the University of Buffalo.

Istvan began his coaching career at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State, spending time as an offensive coordinator (1996-2000) and graduate assistant (1990-95). He first coached with Eagles run game coordinator/offensive line coach Jeff Stoutland for three years (1990-92) with the Owls after originally playing for him as a student athlete.

Istvan and his wife, Kristin, have three children: Jaylin and twins Kambria and Zachariah.
