

ANDY WEIDL

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

NFL Experience: 24th Year (6th with Eagles)

College: Villanova Hometown: Pittsburgh, PA

Super Bowl Champion: 2012 (XLVII), 2017 (LII)

A veteran with 24 years of NFL scouting experience, Andy Weidl enters his sixth overall season with the Philadelphia Eagles and third as the team's vice president of player personnel.

Weidl has played an integral role in helping construct rosters that have produced playoff appearances in three of the last four seasons, including two NFC East championships (2017 and 2019) and a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII.

Weidl originally joined Philadelphia's scouting department as the assistant director of player personnel (2016-17), working under former Eagles vice president of player personnel and current New York Jets general manager Joe Douglas. During the 2018 offseason, he was promoted to director of player personnel.

Before he arrived in Philadelphia, Weidl spent 11 years with the Baltimore Ravens (2005-15). He scouted for Ravens general manager and Pro Football Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome's staff and helped the organization capture Super Bowl XLVII during the 2012 season.

Weidl began his tenure in Baltimore as a West area scout in 2005 and served in that capacity for four seasons before becoming a Northeast scout in 2009. After working in that role for four years, he finished his Ravens career as an East regional scout from 2013-16.

Prior to Baltimore, Weidl was a Northeast area scout (2003-04) and a national combine scout (2000-02) for the New Orleans Saints.

Weidl began his NFL career with the Pittsburgh Steelers evaluating college and professional players as a player personnel assistant (1998-99) under the tutelage of Eagles senior football advisor and former Steelers director of football operations Tom Donahoe and former Steelers scout and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Nunn.

Celebrated as the Thomas J. Burke Award recipient for his "consistent performance and dedication" as an offensive lineman at Villanova, Weidl earned his undergraduate degree in communications (1996) and a master's degree in human resource development (1997).

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Weidl and his wife, Aimee, have a daughter, Payten, and two sons, Luke and Christian.
