

LEE DIVALERIO

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

NFL Experience: 10th Year (10th with Eagles)
College: Villanova Hometown: Aston, PA

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION: 2017 (LII), 2024 (LIX)

Lee DiValerio, who enters his tenth overall year as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles’ scouting department, was promoted to assistant director of pro scouting during the 2026 offseason.

Prior to being elevated, DiValerio served as a Southeast Area scout from 2023-25 and an NFS scout from 2020-22. He originally joined the Eagles’ front office as a player personnel intern in 2017 and was hired as a scouting assistant in 2018.

Throughout his time in Philadelphia, DiValerio has contributed to three Super Bowl appearances (LII, LVII and LIX), including victories over New England in Super Bowl LII and Kansas City in Super Bowl LIX.

DiValerio attended Villanova University, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in economics. While in college, DiValerio worked as a student assistant with Villanova’s football team.

A native of Aston, PA, DiValerio attended Sun Valley High School, where he played football and lacrosse.

CAREER TIMELINE
Years	Team	Position
2026-	Philadelphia Eagles	Assistant Director of Pro Scouting
2023-25	Philadelphia Eagles	Southeast Area Scout
2020-22	Philadelphia Eagles	NFS Scout
2018-19	Philadelphia Eagles	Scouting Assistant
2017	Philadelphia Eagles	Player Personnel Intern