

ALEX TANNEY

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS/OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

NFL Experience: 2nd Year (2nd with Eagles)

College: Monmouth College (IL) Hometown: Lexington, IL

Alex Tanney was named the Philadelphia Eagles’ assistant quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant during the 2022 offseason. A former NFL quarterback, he originally joined the team as an offensive quality control coach in 2021 after returning from his nine-year playing career (2012-20).

In his first coaching season, Tanney supported an offense that led the league with a team record in rushing yards (2,715). Philadelphia also ranked fourth in third-down percentage (franchise-record 45.7 pct.) and allowed the fifth-fewest giveaways (16).

Tanney served as a backup quarterback throughout his playing career. After originally entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs (2012), Tanney also spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2013), Cleveland Browns (2013), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2014), Tennessee Titans (2014-15, 2015-17), Buffalo Bills (2015), Indianapolis Colts (2015) and New York Giants (2018-20). He saw action in two contests, completing 11-of-15 (73.3 pct.) attempts for 100 yards, one touchdown and a 113.2 rating.

During his time as a player, Tanney crossed paths with Nick Sirianni in Kansas City (2012) and Shane Steichen in Cleveland (2013).

Tanney attended Monmouth College (IL), where he set NCAA Division III career records in passing yards (14,249) and passing touchdowns (157) and was a three-time Midwest Conference Offensive Player of the Year. In 2009, Tanney threw for 3,856 yards and 44 touchdowns and won the Melberger Award as Division III’s best player. He also established a school record with 50 touchdown passes as a sophomore in 2008.

A native of Lexington, IL, Tanney graduated from Monmouth with a degree in business administration and economics.

His two older brothers, Matt and Mitch, are also in the sports industry. Matt is the athletics director at Wabash College (IN) and Mitch previously served as the director of analytics for the Denver Broncos.

Tanney and his wife, Rebecca, have three sons: Gunnar, Wyatt, and Barrett.
