'SWOLE' AND 'SKINNY BATMAN'

- A.J. Brown (career-high 1,401) and DeVonta Smith (career-high 1,129) are the first 1,000+ yard receiving duo in franchise history.
- Brown ranks 4th in the NFL this season with 1,401 receiving yards and is 3rd in the league with a career-high-tying 11 receiving TDs.
- Smith has totaled 3 straight games of 100+ receiving yards. He is the first Eagle to do so since Terrell Owens in 2004 (5 games).

BY THE NUMBERS

13-3

Philadelphia is tied for the best record (13-3) in the NFL. The Eagles have totaled 13 wins for just the third time in franchise history (also 2004 and 2017).

72.2%

Philadelphia ranks 1st in the NFL with a 72.2% red zone TD efficiency. The current team record was set during the 2019 campaign (66.7%) (since 1995).

46.6%

The Eagles have produced the 3rd-highest third-down conversion rate (46.6%) in the league. The club record was set last season (45.7%) (since 1972).

31

Philadelphia has rushed for a team-record 31 TDs this season. The Eagles are the fifth NFL team since 1970 to rush for 25+ TDs in consecutive years.

329.0

Philadelphia owns the 3rd-best total offense (329.0), trailing only Kansas City (417.7) and Buffalo (402.3), including the No. 5 rushing offense (148.4 ypg).

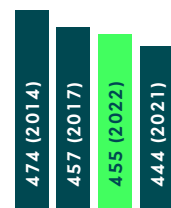

17

The Eagles have surrendered 17-or-fewer defensive points in 10 games this season, which is the 2nd-most in the NFL, behind San Francisco (11).

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

EAGLES SCORING RECORD

- Philadelphia is averaging the 3rd-most points per game (28.4) in the NFL and set a team record with 58 total TDs this year. Overall, the Eagles have scored 455 points, which is the 3rd-most in franchise history, trailing only the 2014 (474) and 2017 (457) campaigns.

GO BIRDS

REDDICK'S MULTI-SACK STREAK

Haason Reddick has registered 2.0+ sacks in 3 consecutive games. With another 2.0-sack performance on Sunday, he can become the third NFL player since 1982 to have 4 straight games with 2.0+ sacks, joining Simeon Rice with Tampa Bay in 2002 and Reggie White with Philadelphia in 1987.
