THE MATCHUP

The New Orleans Saints (6-9) enter Sunday's matchup having won two-consecutive games, looking to break a two-game losing streak in the series at conference leader Philadelphia (13-2). New Orleans will be looking to have their first three-game winning streak in over a year and remain in contention for a postseason berth.

The Saints are coming off of a two-game stretch that saw them gain a 21-18 victory over Atlanta on December 18 followed by their grittiest performance of the 2022 season, a 17-10 win against at the Cleveland Browns.

With the starting temperature for the game at six degrees Fahrenheit, the Saints braved the elements and an initial 10-0 deficit to persevere through worsening weather conditions through the afternoon and score 17 straight points, while holding their opponent scoreless in the second half.

QB Andy Dalton capably led the Saints to battle, as a veteran of AFC North matchups in challenging conditions as a member of the Cincinnati Bengals, completing 8-of-15 passes for 92 yards, including four completions to rookie wideout Rashid Shaheed for 41 yards and two to RB Alvin Kamara for a gain of 34 yards, including a 29-yarder. Kamara's third quarter four-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter, was the 72nd overall score of his career, tying him for first in franchise record books with WR Marques Colston. TE Taysom Hill carried nine times for 56 yards with one touchdown, to increase his team-leading total for the season to six rushing and eight overall, with his 22 career rushing touchdowns the most by a Saint to not play tailback.

Defensively, New Orleans continued their strong play in keeping opponents out of the end zone, keeping their sixth consecutive opponent to 20 points or less. Surrendering only 125 net passing yards, it was the first time New Orleans has held opponents to 125 or lower in two consecutive contests since the 2013 season. The defense was aided by several standout performances, including S Daniel Sorensen who intercepted Cleveland QB Deshaun Watson for a 36-yard return in the third quarter to set up New Orleans' go-ahead score. DE Carl Granderson sacked Watson at the New Orleans 22-yard line on the Browns' final play from scrimmage to seal the victory. S Tyrann Mathieu finished with a game-high 11 tackles (six solo), his highest total as a Saint as he led a secondary missing two starters.

Around the NFC South: The Buccaneers (7-8) host the Panthers (6-9) at Raymond James Stadium at noon CT, while the Falcons (5-10) host the Cardinals (4-11).

LAST MEETING

Philadelphia Eagles 40, New Orleans Saints 29; November 21, 2021 @ Lincoln Financial Field—A lengthy injury report and the rushing attack of the Philadelphia Eagles was too much for the New Orleans Saints to overcome as they dropped their third consecutive game, this time a 40-29 defeat to the Eagles on Sunday, Nov. 21 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

The loss dropped the Saints to 5-5 with a Thanksgiving night game coming up against the Buffalo Bills at Caesars Superdome.

"We didn't do the things necessary to win in this league," Saints Coach Sean Payton said. "All of us have to do a better job. It's going to be a short week."

The Eagles (5-6) ran the ball at will against the Saints, carrying the ball 50 times for 242 yards. Philadelphia also forced Saints quarterback Trevor Siemian into two interceptions, the second one returned 51 yards for a touchdown by cornerback Darius Slay toward the end of the second quarter.

Mark Ingram II, starting at running back in place of an injured Alvin Kamara and carried the ball 16 times for 88 yards and caught six passes for 25 yards. He lost a fumble early in the third quarter, the team's third turnover of the contest.

Siemian, who replaced Jameis Winston at quarterback after Winston was lost for the season to an injury sustained against Tampa Bay on Oct. 31, had an uneven performance, completing 22 of 40 passes for 214 yards with three touchdown passes (18 yards to Adam Trautman, 26 yards to Marquez Callaway, four yards to Lil'Jordan Humphrey), a 17-yard touchdown run and the two interceptions. Tight end Adam Trautman, who had five receptions for 58 yards and a touchdown, left the game in the fourth quarter with a knee injury.

In addition to Kamara and Winston, the Saints were missing three-fifths of their starting offensive line (left tackle Terron Armstead, left guard Andrus Peat and right tackle Ryan Ramczyk) and star wide receiver Michael Thomas, who is sidelined for the season.

The New Orleans defense was relatively healthy but struggled to contain Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts and running backs Miles Sanders and Jordan Howard. Hurts had two short touchdown runs in the first quarter and put the game away with a 24-yard touchdown run with 3:59 to play. Philadelphia kicker Jake Elliott converted on all four of his field-goal attempts (50, 37, 33 and 47 yards).

Defensive end Cameron Jordan recorded a sack, giving him 98.5 for his career.

The Saints scored 15 consecutive points in the fourth quarter - 22 total for the period - to get back into the game. It was the third consecutive fourth quarter rally for the Saints (22 points in fourth quarter of loss to Atlanta, nine points in loss to Tennessee) but they came up short each time. It is the team's first three-game losing streak since the 2016 season.

SERIES HISTORY

The New Orleans Saints and Philadelphia Eagles first met on November 5, 1967, with New Orleans posting a 31-24 victory at Tulane Stadium. It was the first win in franchise history, coming in Week eight of the Saints' inaugural season. In 1967 and 1969, New Orleans and Philadelphia were rivals in the NFL's Capitol division. The Eagles lead the regular season series 18-12, with the Saints holding a 3-1 edge in the playoffs. TEAM NOTES

BABY IT'S COLD OUTSIDE

With Saturday's high temperature at Cleveland's FirstEnergy Stadium at six degrees Fahrenheit at kickoff, New Orleans' matchup in Cleveland was the coldest starting temperature for a game in franchise history. Previously the lowest starting temperature for a Black and Gold contest was 24 degrees in a 37-26 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles on December 26, 1993 in Veterans Stadium. In a game, where the starting wind chill was -16 in a stadium draped over Lake Erie, New Orleans persevered in the elements and came back from a 10-0 deficit to prevail with a 17-10 victory. In recognition of the challenges faced organizationally, starting with the team to need to compress their practice schedule to travel on December 22, two days ahead of the Christmas Eve contest to arrive prior to a blizzard on December 23, Saints head coach Dennis Allen awarded the New Orleans equipment staff with a game ball for their efforts and forward thinking in outfitting the team for challenging conditions. Sunday's contest in Philadelphia is scheduled to have high temperatures in the low 60's with a 50 percent chance of rain.

Running back Dwayne Washington participated on the Saints practice squad briefly in 2018 after spending most of the 2016 and 2017 seasons on Detroit's active roster. Through development, the tailback, in addition to his running skills, has developed into a core special teams player with 11 stops, to have a career-high seven for 2021.

Tight end Juwan Johnson was signed by New Orleans out of Oregon, where he spent his graduate transfer season following the 2020 NFL Draft as a wideout. Recording four receptions for 39 yards seven contests, Johnson spent the majority of the season on the practice squad. Converted to tight end in 2021 and leading the position group with four touchdowns, Johnson's took advantage of his frame and participation in his first full offseason strength and conditioning program in 2022 and leads the tight ends group with 36 receptions for 425 yards with a club-best seven touchdown grabs, third in the league at his position.

After spending the last six weeks of the 2019 season and the first 16 weeks of the 2020 campaign on the practice squad, Linebacker Andrew Dowell was elevated to the club's active roster for the regular season finale at Carolina. In two preseason games in 2021, he posted five tackles, one forced fumble and two coverage spots to secure a regular season roster spot. In Week 3 at New England, Dowell recorded the first blocked punt that an opponent had against the Patriots since the 2015 season. Dowell's five special teams tackles on Dec. 19 at Tampa Bay was the highest single-game total in the NFL in 2021 and he finished the season tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops. On Oct. 16 vs. Cincinnati, he forced a fumble on punt coverage and he posted a tackle at Arizona on October 20. He recorded a stop in a return to his hometown of Cleveland on Saturday.

After splitting his rookie season in 2018 between the practice squad and active roster, defensive back J.T. Gray enjoyed a breakthrough campaign in 2019, when he was selected AP second-team All-Pro when he recorded 16 special teams tackles, one blocked punt and one coverage fumble recovery. In 2021, he was selected as a first-team All-Pro and to his first career Pro Bowl (starter), when he led the NFL with 19 special teams tackles (league-leading 16 solo). Gray leads the team with ten special teams stops in 2022, despite missing three games with a hamstring injury.

Wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed came to New Orleans as one of the all-time best Division I-AA returners and after spending the first five weeks on the practice squad, made a quick impact on Oct. 16 vs. Cincinnati with a 44-yard rushing TD. With his 53-yard receiving touchdown on October 20 at Arizona, Shaheed become the only Saint to score touchdowns on each of his first two career offensive touches. Shaheed has also handled return duties for New Orleans since being activated, bringing back 17 punts for 175 yards (10.3 avg.).

Originally signing as an undrafted free agent with Kansas City in 2014 out of BYU, safety Daniel Sorensen spent the first half of his rookie season on the Chiefs practice squad before being elevated to the active roster at midseason where he contributed with seven tackles. Sorensen has seven defensive tackles and seven special teams stops in 2022, with his most important play taking place in Saturday's win over Cleveland with his third quarter 36-yard interception return.

Fullback Adam Prentice was originally signed by Denver following the 2021 NFL Draft out of South Carolina. Joining the Saints at the conclusion of the 2021 preseason, Prentice appeared in seven games with three starts for New Orleans, carrying three times for five yards and catching three passes for 16 yards, while making one special teams stop. In 2022, he has played in eight games with one start, rushing three times for seven yards, catching two passes for five yards and also contributing on special teams with one tackle.

Originally selected as a third round pick by the Arizona Cardinals in 2015 out of Northern Iowa, RB David Johnson has been signed to the active roster after having stints on the Saints practice squad in 2022. In 88 career games with 63 starts for the Cardinals (2015-19), Houston Texans (2020-21) and Saints (2022), Johnson has carried 1,007 times for 4,071 yards (4.0 avg.) with 39 touchdowns and has caught 275 passes for 2,777 yards with 18 touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

Ahead is a synopsis of several returning players and newcomers through the draft and free agency to the 2022 Saints offensive line:

Tackle/Guard James Hurst - An eight-year National Football League veteran who was signed as a free agent from Baltimore in 2020, Hurst has 133 career regular season appearances with 78 starts at three different positions on the inside and outside. His versatility came in handy in 2020, as he started two contests at left tackle and one at left guard and the Saints gained over 200 yards rushing each time. In 2021, Hurst moved into the lineup for eight games at left tackle in place of an injured Armstead, two at left guard in place of an injured Andrus Peat and three at right tackle for an injured Ryan Ramczyk, starting contests at three different positions. Hurst has started 14 games at left tackle.

Right Tackle Ryan Ramczyk - The Black and Gold used their second first round selection in the 2017 NFL Draft to snag Ramczyk out of the University of Wisconsin, one of the best offensive linemen in the entire draft. After opening all 16 games and both postseason contests in 2017 and being selected as a PFWA All-Rookie, he has been selected as an Associated Press All-Pro selection three times since. After missing seven contests in 2021, Ramczyk has rebounded to be the only member of the line to open every game in 2022, also having been elected as a team captain for the first time.

T/G Andrus Peat - A first round selection (13th overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Peat was considered one of the top college linemen in 2014. In his first eight seasons, he's played in 91 regular season games with 86 starts, opening a contest at every position except center. In 2020, he opened 13 contests at left guard as he was part of the NFC Pro squad for the third consecutive season. In 2021, he opened the first six contests, where New Orleans got off to a 4-2 start before suffering a season-ending pectoral injury. In his return to the starting lineup in the 2022 season opener in Atlanta, New Orleans rushed for 151 yards. In back-to-back weeks, Peat was been a part rushing efforts of 200-yards plus by the club for the first time since 2020.

Center/Guard Erik McCoy - New Orleans traded up in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft to select this standout from Texas A&M, who was a three-year starter, anchoring the middle of the Aggies line. In 2018, he was a team captain who paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher and in 2019 was the first Saint in franchise history to start at center in Week One, opening all 16 regular season contests. McCoy opened all 16 contests and both postseason games in 2020 for the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense. McCoy started 13 contests at center in 2021. Prior to the Week One season opener at Atlanta, McCoy agreed to a five-year contract extension with the Saints.

Tackle Landon Young - A mainstay at left tackle for his entire college career at the Kentucky, Young played in 49 contests with 30 starts in his college career. The Lexington, Ky. native was selected by New Orleans in the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft and held up to the competition in training camp to snare a roster spot. Young opened one contest at right tackle in 2021 and serves as Ramczyk's backup on the right side, also playing jumbo tight end. On October 13 at Pittsburgh, he slide over to left tackle for the second half to replace Hurst (concussion) and opened this the November 20 win over the Rams at one of the league's most challenging positions.

Offensive Lineman Calvin Throckmorton - This 6-5, 309 pound former four-year starter on the Oregon line was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2020, possessing the flexibility to play all five positions along the offensive line. After spending his rookie season on the practice squad, Throckmorton increased strength in the 2021 offseason and made strides in training camp. In his NFL debut in the 2021 season opening-win, Throckmorton was called to play right guard following a lower leg injury to McCoy in the first quarter, subsequently starting four contests. He then moved into left guard, Oct. 25 at Seattle following a shoulder injury to Andrus Peat and opened the last ten, opening three in 2022 in place of an injured Peat and starting the Week 13 and 16 contests at right guard.

Offensive Lineman Lewis Kidd - This 6-5, 311 pounder closed out his college career with 48 consecutive starts at Montana State, third in school history. Possessing the versatility to play both guard and tackle, he was selected a consensus first-team All-American in the fall of 2021. Kidd was the only Saints undrafted free agent rookie to secure a roster spot in Week One of the regular season and made his first career NFL start, opening at left guard on November 13 at Pittsburgh.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE DRAFTS

Over the last eight drafts from 2015-22, the New Orleans Saints have shown a commitment to building up the team's defense, spending 21-of-33 picks on that side of the ball. With nine picks in 2015, the Saints picked six defensive players, the most taken since New Orleans chose nine in a 12-round selection meeting in 1990. Below is an overview of the defensive players on the 53-man roster selected from 2015-22 with the club:

Cornerback Paulson Adebo, Stanford (D3-21) - Selected in the third round (76th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft out of Stanford, Adebo finished his college career playing in 22 games with 21 starts and recording 97 tackles, 34 passes defended and eight interceptions, earning All-Pac-12 in 2018 and 2019. He started in the opener and became the first Saint to record an interception in his National Football League debut since 2002. With three picks, he became only the fifth Saints rookie to reach that level. Overall, he posted 63 tackles (54 solo), three picks and eight passes defended. After missing the first two contests of 2022 with an ankle injury, Adebo has posted 53 tackles (40 solo) and six passes defended.

Defensive End Marcus Davenport, Texas-San Antonio (D1-18) - Davenport joined the Saints with the 14th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft after showing potential and production as a pass rusher at Texas-San Antonio. In four seasons, Davenport posted 22 sacks, including 8.5 in 2017 when he captured Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. Davenport's strength on the line is a valuable asset for the Saints front, as he finished second on the team with a career-high nine sacks and added a club-best three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in 11 games with nine starts in 2021, despite missing six games. In 12 contests with nine starts in 2022, Davenport has posted 26 stops and a split sack.

Linebacker Kaden Elliss, Idaho (D7-19) - New Orleans selected this four-year starter from Idaho to compete at both linebacker and contribute on special teams. The Salt Lake City native finished his college career with 288 stops, 47 tackles for loss and 17 sacks. After missing the bulk of his rookie year with a knee injury, Elliss showed promise with five stops on coverage units in 2020 and in 2021, his progress continued with 13 stops, one sack, one fumble recovery and one special teams tackle. In 2022, Elliss has posted a career-high 66 defensive tackles (38 solo), a career-best 5.5 sacks, tied for second on the team, two passes defended, one forced fumble and four special teams stops. • In 2022, Hill will assist the Black and Gold offense in multiple facets. Making his debut in that role, he contributed on both offense and special teams in the season opener at Atlanta, Hill carried four times for a club-best 81 yards (20.3 avg.), including a career-long 57-yard carry, as well as an 11-yard rushing touchdown on the same first quarter drive of his long run. Hill also caught a pass for a two-yard gain and contributed on multiple special teams units both on the coverage and return teams. Overall, he ranks second on the team in rushing with 77 carries for a career-high 505 yards (club-best 6.6 avg.) with a club-best six rushing touchdowns, seven catches for 66 yards with two scores, leading the team in total touchdowns and tied for second in the NFL among tight ends, while completing 11-of-17 passes for 216 yards with two touchdown throws and a 147.3 passer rating. With one more touchdown, he would tie his career-high of nine in 2020. With two more touchdowns, Hill would set a career-best join Jimmy Graham (2011, 2013, 2014) as only the second Saint to reach the end zone ten times.

RECORD BREAKER

In the October 9 39-22 win over Seattle, Hill put together one of the most impressive combined efforts by a Saint on both offense and special teams. Hill carried nine times for a career-high 112 yards (club-record 12.4 avg.) with a career-high three touchdowns, including a career-long 60-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter. In addition, he tossed a 22-yard touchdown pass to Trautman and returned three kickoffs to tie a career-high for a career-best 69 yards. He's also the first player since the NFL merger to register a kick return, two rushing touchdowns and a passing touchdown in the same game. Hill became the second player in franchise history with at least three rushing touchdowns and a passing touchdown in the same game, joining Archie Manning (at Chicago, 10/2/77). Hill's the third player ever to record at least 100 rushing yards, three rushing touchdowns and a touchdown pass in a single game, joining Ronnie Brown (September 21, 2008) and Pro Football Hall of Famer LaDainian Tomlinson (September 25, 2005). Hill now has 21 career rushing touchdowns, seven career touchdown receptions and nine career touchdown passes. He joins Tomlinson as the only players since 2000 with at least 20 rushing touchdowns, five receiving touchdowns and five touchdown passes in their career.

DOUBLE DIGITS

In the December 18 21-18 win over Atlanta, Hill played a pivotal role in both the running game and the passing game, rushing seven times for 30 yards to contribute to a 134-yard day on the ground for New Orleans and completing two passes for 80 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown to rookie wideout Rashid Shaheed. With Hill's touchdown pass, he now has ten career passing touchdowns, 21 career rushing touchdowns and 11 receiving touchdowns (regular season and playoffs combined). The last player to reach double-digit touchdowns in passing, rushing and receiving was Pro Football Hall of Famer Frank Gifford (1952-64).

New Orleans Saints 12/24/22 Game Notes

- The Saints beat the Cleveland Browns 17-10 Saturday, improving to 6-9 on the year. New Orleans will travel to Philadelphia next week to take on the Eagles. Kickoff is at noon CT with the contest at Lincoln Financial Field regionally televised on FOX (WVUE FOX 8 locally)
- With a starting temperature of six degrees Fahrenheit, the contest was the coldest starting time for a Saints game in franchise history that they have played in.
- With the win, the Saints are now 6-13 all time against the Browns.
- New Orleans is now 8-2 on Christmas Eve, 5-0 on the road.
- The Saints committed just two penalties for 15 yards compared to four penalties for 45 yards for the Browns.
- Under challenging weather conditions, the Saints offensive line did not surrender a sack, despite starting right guard Cesar Ruiz being placed on Injured Reserve during the week and left guard Andrus Peat forced to depart the contest in the first half with an ankle injury.
- Giving up just ten points in the contest, New Orleans has given up 20 or fewer points in six consecutive contests for the first time between 11/11-12/9/18
- With two quarterback takedowns on Saturday, the Black and Gold have at least 40 sacks in six straight seasons for the first time since the 1995-2001 period, that seven-season stretch being the longest in franchise history since sacks were recognized as an official statistic in 1982.
- The saints racked up 152 yards on the ground Saturday. RB Alvin Kamara led the way with 76 yards on 20 carries followed by TE Taysom Hill with 56 yards on nine carries.

- Safety Tyrann Mathieu led the Saints with a game-high 11 tackles (six solo) Saturday. Mathieu's 11 tackles set his season-high and was his first double-digit tackle game as a Saint. With 81 tackles on the season to lead the Saints secondary (58 solo to lead the team), Mathieu needs eight stops to tie his career-highs of 89 set in 2015 with the Arizona Cardinals and tied in 2018 with the Houston Texans and nine to reach 90 for the first time in his career.
- Defensive end Carl Granderson had his fourth sack of the season against the Browns to effectively secure the win on a fourth down play. Granderson finished with six tackles (five solo) and a club-best three tackles for loss. Granderson now has four sacks on the season, but is tied for the team lead with 3.5 stops since November 13.
- With the win Saturday, quarterback Andy Dalton has a 13-5 record against Cleveland as a starter, the most victories he has against an opponent. Dalton completed eight-of-15 passes for 92 yards with one interception.
- With five tackles Saturday, linebacker Demario Davis has 1,199 career tackles, ranked third among active players. Davis needs just one tackle to reach 1,200 for his career, joining Lavonte David and Bobby Wagner as the third active player with 1,200. Davis has 94 tackles in 2022, needing six for his sixth consecutive 100-stop season overall and fifth straight as a Saint. With 100 stops in 2022, Davis would become the first Saint to have 100 tackles in five consecutive seasons.
 - With Saturday's rushing touchdown, tight end Taysom Hill now has 22 for his career, surpassing quarterback Drew Brees and Running Back Mario Bates for sole possession of tenth place in club record books and also having the most rushing touchdowns by a Saint to play a position other than running back.
 - Rookie wide receiver Rashid Shaheed tied a career-high for catches with four receptions for 41 yards.
 - Hill has 505 rushing yards in 2022. With 56 rushing yards on Saturday, Hill set a new career-high for rushing yards in a season. That also is the highest rushing total by any Saint in a single season to not play the running back position
- Defensive end Cameron Jordan played in his 201st career game (regular season/postseason combined) on Saturday, surpassing kicker Morten Andersen for sole possession of third place in club record books. Jordan also joined quarterback Drew Brees on Saturday as only the second Saint to start 200 career games (regular season and postseason/combined) with the club. Jordan played in his 190th career regular season game as a Saint, putting him in a tie for fourth place in club record books with punter Thomas Morstead, ahead of Black and Gold defensive lineman Frank Warren. Jordan led the defensive line with seven tackles (five solo).
- Safety Daniel Sorensen's third quarter 36-yard interception return Saturday was the 13th of his career and his first as a member of the Saints. Sorensen had a season-high six defensive stops.

- With his touchdown score against the Browns, Running Back Alvin Kamara's 72 total touchdowns tied Marques Colston for most in franchise history. He needed only five and a half seasons to tie the club record. Kamara's 49 rushing touchdowns tie Deuce McAllister for second most in club history. Overall, Kamara led the Saints in rushing with 20 carries for 76 yards with the score and accumulated a key 29-yard reception as part of two grabs for 34 yards.
- Kicker Wil Lutz has 772 career points. With a field goal and two PATs Saturday, Lutz surpassed kicker John Carney (2001-06, 2009-10) for second on the club's all-time list. Overall, Lutz is seven points from reaching 100 in a season for the sixth campaign of his career.
- Defensive tackle Kentavius Street played in his 50th career game on Saturday and split a sack with fellow defensive tackle David Onyemata.
- In challenging weather conditions, punter Blake Gillikin punted six times for 254 yards with a 42.3 gross punting average and 36.5 net with two dropped inside-the-20.
- Making his Saints debut, linebacker Ty Summers led the Saints with two special teams tackles.
