

SCOTT
KANIECKI

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

NFL Experience: 8th Year (1st with Eagles)

College: SUNY Brockport    Hometown: Grand Island, NY

Scott Kaniecki joined the Philadelphia Eagles’ coaching staff as the administrative assistant to the head coach during the 2022 offseason.

Kaniecki, who enters his eighth year working in the NFL, came to Philadelphia after spending seven seasons (2015-21) with the Cleveland Browns. During his time in Cleveland, Kaniecki worked in the personnel department in remote roles (2015, ‘19-21) and as a scouting assistant (2016-17). Furthermore, he contributed to the Browns’ coaching staff as a defensive quality control coach in 2018, working primarily with the linebackers.

Prior to his tenure with Cleveland, Kaniecki mentored the linebackers and defensive backs at the Colorado School of Mines from 2012-14. He was also a quality control coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania during the 2008-11 seasons. In 2008, Kaniecki crossed paths with Eagles head coach Nick Sirianni, who coached the Crimson Hawks’ wide receivers.

Kaniecki played collegiately as a wide receiver at SUNY Brockport from 2004-07. He earned a bachelor’s degree from SUNY Brockport as well as a master’s degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Kaniecki and his wife, Erin, have a daughter, Madelyn.
