

POST-GAME NOTES
PHILADELPHIA EAGLES vs. LAS VEGAS RAIDERS
December 14, 2025

---

EAGLES SHUT OUT RAIDERS, 31-0, TO IMPROVE TO 9-5

- Philadelphia improved to 9-5 (.643) with today's 31-0 victory vs. Las Vegas. The Eagles have secured their fifth consecutive winning season with Nick Sirianni at the helm - the longest streak to start a career in franchise history – and their 21st winning campaign under Jeffrey Lurie.
  - Sirianni is the 10th head coach since 1970 to start their career with five straight winning seasons, joining Bill Cowher, John Harbaugh, Mike Holmgren, Chuck Knox, Sean McVay, George Seifert, Mike Sherman, Mike Smith and Mike Tomlin (Elias).
  - Since Lurie's first full year of ownership, Philadelphia is one of only four teams with 21+ winning seasons, joining Green Bay (24), New England (24) and Pittsburgh (23).
- The Eagles own a 15-2 (.882) record in their last 17 games at Lincoln Financial Field (including playoffs). That is the club's best 17-game stretch in the history of the venue (since 2003).
- Philadelphia registered a shutout for the first time since 12/30/18 at Washington (W, 24-0). It was the largest margin of victory by the Eagles in a shutout since 12/16/90 vs. Green Bay (W, 31-0).
- Philadelphia limited Las Vegas to 75 total yards, marking the fewest yards allowed by an NFL team since Cleveland on 11/5/23 vs. Arizona (58 yards). The Raiders' 75 total yards were the fewest surrendered by an Eagles defense since 12/4/55 vs. Chicago Cardinals (49 yards).
- Philadelphia's 312-yard margin vs. Las Vegas marked the 3rd-best figure by a team this season, behind Denver in Week 4 vs. Cincinnati (+353) and Kansas City in Week 7 vs. Las Vegas (+339). The Eagles' +312 yard margin represented their most in a game since 9/7/08 vs. St. Louis (+356).

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES IN EAGLES VICTORY

- Jalen Hurts became the first QB in Eagles history to record multiple games with a 150+ passer rating (154.9) and 80%+ completion percentage (80.0%) in the same season. He previously accomplished the feat in Week 7 at Minnesota (158.3 rating and 82.6% percentage).
  - Hurts is tied with Josh Allen and Drake Maye for the most 25+ yard passing TDs (9) in the league this season, tying for the 2nd-highest such total of his career (12 in 2022).
- Dallas Goedert, who led the team with 70 receiving yards and 2 TDs, became the fifth player in franchise history to reach 400+ career receptions, joining Harold Carmichael (589, 1971-83), Zach Ertz (579, 2013-21), Pete Retzlaff (452, 1956-66) and Brian Westbrook (426, 2002-09).

- With his fourth career game with 2+ TDs, Goedert has now produced the 2nd-most receiving TDs (9) by a TE in Eagles history, behind Pete Retzlaff in 1965 (10).
  - Goedert's three games with 2+ receiving TDs are tied for the 3rd-most by an Eagle in a season, behind Mike Quick (4 in 1987) and Harold Carmichael (4 in 1979).
- Brandon Graham logged his 12th career game with 2.0+ sacks (last: 1/1/23 vs. New Orleans).
  - Graham (37 years-255 days) became the oldest player in Eagles history to register a sack in a game (previously Richard Dent at 37 years-1 day on 12/14/97 at Atlanta).
  - Graham also became the oldest NFL player to produce multiple sacks in the first half of a game since Bruce Smith on 11/28/02 at Dallas with Washington (39 years-163 days).
- Zack Baun picked off Raiders QB Kenny Pickett during the third quarter, which gave him career highs in both takeaways (3) and INTs (2). It was his first INT since Week 3 vs. L.A. Rams.
  - Baun is the only NFL player with 100+ tackles, 3.0+ sacks and 3+ takeaways this year.
  - The Eagles have recorded five consecutive games with an INT dating back to Week 11. That is the club's longest streak since doing so in six straight games in 2022.
