

MONTGOMERY VANGORDER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS

NFL Experience: 2nd Year (2nd with Eagles)
 College: Notre Dame, Youngstown State Hometown: Buford, GA

Montgomery VanGorder enters his second year with the Philadelphia Eagles after being named the offensive assistant/assistant quarterbacks coach in the 2026 offseason.

In 2025, VanGorder served as the offensive quality control coach, where he contributed to an offense that saw Jalen Hurts throw for a career-high 25 passing touchdowns, 11 of which were completed to Dallas Goedert, who registered an Eagles tight end single-season touchdown record.

Prior to entering the NFL, VanGorder spent six seasons as an offensive quality control coach at Georgia from 2019-24, including two years working primarily with the Bulldogs' quarterbacks (2023-24). In that time, he assisted two CFP National Championship-winning teams and helped Georgia record one of the most dominant runs in modern college football history.

In 2024, VanGorder contributed to an offense that ranked 12th in the country in passing yards per game (281.0) and helped the Bulldogs win their second SEC Championship in three seasons while making a Sugar Bowl appearance. In addition, he aided the development of Carson Beck, who produced a career-high 28 passing touchdowns with 3,485 yards.

With VanGorder's support, Georgia ranked fourth nationally in completion percentage (71.8 pct.), fifth in scoring (40.1 ppg) and total offense (496.5 ypg), and 11th in passing offense (305.3 ypg) in 2023. Beck finished the year as a Manning Award finalist and earned second-team All-SEC honors after posting a conference-best 3,941 passing yards with 24 touchdowns.

During the 2022 campaign, VanGorder helped the Bulldogs register the fifth-most points per game (41.1) and total yards per game (501.2) in college football while becoming the first team to win back-to-back national titles in program history. The offense was led by Stetson Bennett, who finished as a Heisman Trophy finalist after throwing for a career-high 4,128 yards with 27 touchdowns and setting a school record with 310 completions.

In 2021, VanGorder was part of a Georgia coaching staff that delivered the program's first national championship in over 40 seasons. Furthermore, the Bulldogs ranked ninth overall in points per game (38.6).

VanGorder played quarterback at Notre Dame from 2014-17 before his final collegiate season at Youngstown State in 2018. He earned a degree in management consulting while attending Notre Dame.

A native of Buford, GA, VanGorder won consecutive Georgia Class 3A State Championships during his time at Buford High School.
