

DUKE TOBIN

MIDLANDS AREA SCOUT

NFL Experience: 3rd Year (3rd with Eagles)
College: Dayton, Northwestern Hometown: Cincinnati, OH

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION: 2024 (LIX)

Duke Tobin, who enters his third year with the Philadelphia Eagles, was named the Midlands Area scout during the 2025 offseason.

Prior to earning his current title, Tobin served as a scouting assistant in 2024, when the Eagles captured the Super Bowl LIX Championship. In that capacity, he aided the team’s pro and college scouts with advance scouting reports, free agency processing and draft prospect visits.

Tobin began his NFL career in Philadelphia as a player personnel associate in 2023, focusing on pro day coordination, pro scouting operations and pre-draft preparation.

Before joining the Eagles, Tobin was a recruiting analyst with Northwestern’s football program in 2022, specializing in the recruiting, scouting and logistics of quarterbacks and running backs.

A native of Cincinnati, OH, Tobin received his undergraduate degrees in entrepreneurship and marketing from Dayton. He also obtained a graduate certificate in sports analytics from Northwestern.

CAREER TIMELINE
Years	Team	Position
2025-	Philadelphia Eagles	Midlands Area Scout
2024	Philadelphia Eagles	Scouting Assistant
2023	Philadelphia Eagles	Player Personnel Associate
2022	Northwestern	Recruiting Analyst