WASHINGTON COMMANDERS | 2026 GAME RELEASE

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT - FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

ADAM PETERS

GENERAL MANAGER

Adam Peters enters his third season as general manager of the Washington Commanders. In his current role, Peters oversees all aspects of the organizations football operations.

In 2024, Peters built a roster that finished 12-5 which was the best regular season record in franchise history since 1991. The team also won their first playoff game since 2005 and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1991.

Peters became the first GM in franchise history to win 12-plus games in their first season with the franchise. The team improved their win total by +8 from 2023 to 2024, which marked the highest single year improvement in the NFL since the 2019 San Francisco 49ers improved their win total by +9. Peters was the 49ers vice president of player personnel during that 2019 season.

Peters' first draft pick in his role as general manager was selecting QB Jayden Daniels No. 2 overall. Daniels won the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year award, becoming the fifth player in franchise history and the fourth offensive player in franchise history to earn the honor. Daniels set an NFL record for most rushing yards by a rookie quarterback and threw for the most postseason passing yards by a rookie in NFL history.

In Peters first season as general manager, Washington had four players named to the AP All-Pro team and had three players named to the Pro Bowl. Washington's four All-Pro selections were the most in franchise history since 1991. Free agent acquisitions LB Bobby Wagner and LB Frankie Luvu were both named All-Pro, marking the first time in franchise history that Washington had multiple linebackers named All-Pro in a single season. QB Jayden Daniels, WR Terry McLaurin and LB Bobby Wagner were all named Pro Bowlers. It was the first time since 1991 that Washington had a quarterback and wide receiver named to the Pro Bowl in a single season.

Peters joins the Commanders after serving a variety of senior leadership roles with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the team's assistant general manager from 2021-23. Prior to being named assistant general manager, Peters spent four seasons with the 49ers as the vice president of player personnel.

During his time with San Francisco, Peters helped the 49ers construct a top roster in the NFL through the draft, free agency and via trades. Through the NFL Draft, Peters was part of a 49ers leadership team that selected the likes of TE George Kittle, LB Fred Warner, WR Deebo Samuel, T Mike McGlinchey, DT Javon Kinlaw, WR Brandon Aiyuk, and 2019 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year DL Nick Bosa, among others. Through free agency, the team was equally effective, adding key contributors such as CB Richard Sherman, FB Kyle Juszczyk and K Robbie Gould. They also acquired All-Pro RB Christian McCaffrey and T Trent Williams via trade.

In 2023, the 49ers placed a league-high nine total players in the Pro Bowl. Following the conclusion of the 2023 regular season, San Francisco had five players named First Team All Pro by the Associated Press, which was the most by a single team in the NFL.

Peters joined the 49ers after spending eight seasons (2009-16) with the Denver Broncos. In 2016, Peters was named the Broncos director of college scouting after spending two seasons as the team's assistant director of college scouting from 2014-15. Peters spent three years as a national scout (2011-13) after originally joining the Broncos as a regional scout in 2009.

In Denver, Peters helped the team acquire 27 players through the draft and college free agency that were vital members of the Super Bowl 50 roster.

Prior to his time in Denver, Peters spent six seasons (2003-08) with the New England Patriots. In his first two seasons as a scouting assistant in New England, Peters was a part of two Super Bowl championship teams in 2003 and 2004. In 2005, Peters handled pro scouting responsibilities for the team before serving as an area scout in his final three seasons with New England.

Prior to his career in the NFL, Peters spent the 2002 season with UCLA where he served as a football operations graduate assistant after playing defensive end for the Bruins from 1999-2001. He transferred to UCLA from West Valley Junior College where he played tight end for two seasons (1997-98) and earned all-conference honors.

A Cupertino, Calif. native, Peters attended Monta Vista High School where he was a two-sport standout in football and baseball during his prep career.

Peters is married to his wife, Jennifer, and they have two daughters.

DOUG WILLIAMS

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Doug Williams is entering his third season as senior advisor to the general manager.

Williams previously served as senior advisor to Washington Commanders President Jason Wright. In his role, Doug leveraged his vast experience with the team as a player, ambassador, and executive to provide counsel on all matters pertaining to the establishment of a new, modern identity for the team.

Previously, Doug served as Washington's senior vice president of player development. In that role, one of the most celebrated athletes in franchise history helped lead and guide the efforts of the team's player development department.

Doug, a member of the 80 Greatest Washington players and franchise's Ring of Fame, played with the team from 1986-89 and led Washington to a Super Bowl XXII title, which was a 42-10 rout of the Denver Broncos. The first African-American quarterback to play in a Super Bowl, he completed 18-of-29 passes for 340 yards with four touchdown passes to earn Super Bowl XXII MVP honors.

Doug is a veteran of 21 NFL seasons, including nine as a player and 12 in scouting/personnel roles. He spent five seasons as Personnel Executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2004-08 before being named the team's Director of Pro Personnel for the 2009 season.

Doug joined the Buccaneers' front office in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. His responsibilities in Tampa included coordinating the scouting and recruiting of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. In addition, he was in charge of Tampa Bay's evaluating efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League.

A first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), he led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982). They were the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. He started 67 career games for the Buccaneers and was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

In 1986, Washington traded for Williams' rights following two seasons with the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. In his Super Bowl XXII MVP performance following the 1987 season, he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards).

In six seasons during his first tenure (1998-2003) at Grambling State, Doug brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-97 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02, as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year. He rejoined the program for three seasons from 2011-13, including earning the SWAC title in his first season back in 2011.

Doug started his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995 and tutoring running backs for Navy in 1994. He also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee H.S. in New Roads, La., in 1991. In 1993, he was head coach at Northeast H.S. in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals, including a win over Peyton Manning's Isidore Newman squad in the 1993 state quarterfinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, he had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 35-5 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

In 2005, Doug and Shack Harris established The Shack Harris & Doug Williams Foundation with the function of providing grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance for economically disadvantaged youth. In March of 2009, the foundation put on its first annual Washington Football Legends for Charity in Washington, D.C. In 2010, the foundation established the Black College Football Hall of Fame, which will move to its new home in Canton, Ohio in 2018.

After Super Bowl XLII, the NFL honored the 20th anniversary of his Super Bowl XXII victory as Williams was chosen to present the Lombardi Trophy to the New York Giants following their victory over the New England Patriots.

Doug and his wife, Raunda, have eight children: Ashley, Adrian, Carmeleta, Doug, Jr., Jasmine, Laura, Lee and Temessia.

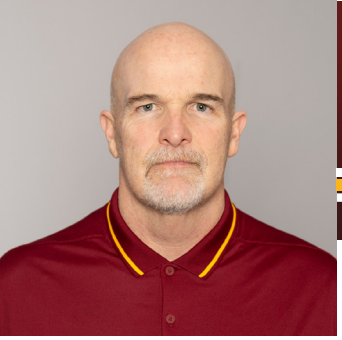
COACHING STAFF



DAN QUINN

HEAD COACH

Dan Quinn enters his third season as Washington's head coach after being hired as the 31st head coach in franchise history on February 3, 2024.

Washington finished with a 5-12 in Quinn's second season in 2025. Quinn took over defensive play-calling duties in Week 11 against Miami and the team saw improvements throughout the rest of the season in points allowed, run defense and time of possession.

In 2024, Quinn led a Commanders team that finished the regular season 12-5 which was the most wins in a single season in franchise history since 1991. Under Quinn's leadership the team advanced to their first NFC Championship game since 1991. Washington improved their win margin by +8 which was the largest win margin improvement in a single season in the entire NFL since 2019.

Quinn became the first head coach in franchise history to win 10-plus games in his first season as head coach. He also became the first head coach in franchise history to win multiple playoff games in his first season as head coach. Quinn joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Joe Gibbs and George Allen as the only head coaches in franchise history to win multiple playoff games in a single season.

In 2024, Washington led the NFL in fourth down conversion percentage (87.0) and ranked No. 5 in total conversions (20) with many crediting Quinn's trust in the offense in giving the team the opportunity to convert at a historic rate. The 20 fourth down conversions and the 87.0 fourth down conversion percentage were both single season franchise records.

Quinn joined the Commanders after coaching for 21 total seasons most recently serving as the defensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys where he was named Assistant Coach of the Year voted on by the Associated Press in 2021. He inherited a defense in 2021 that ranked 28th in points-per-game. From 2021-23, Quinn's unit ranked No. 5 in the NFL in points-per-game (19.9), No. 7 in the NFL in net yards allowed-per-game (327.0), No. 6 in the NFL in sacks (141) and No. 1 in the NFL in interceptions (59). His unit also ranked No. 4 in the NFL in that span in third down conversion percentage (36.4%). Quinn has also excelled in developing defensive talent in Dallas. During his stint as defensive coordinator he assisted in the development of LB Micah Parsons, CB Trevon Diggs and CB DaRon Bland who were all named First Team All Pro as voted on by the Associated Press once over the past three seasons. Dallas also placed three defensive players into the 2024 Pro Bowl in each level of the defense with DE DeMarcus Lawrence, LB Micah Parsons and CB DaRon Bland all representing the NFC this year in Orlando.
