RAMS VISIT THE CITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE

Lincoln Financial Field

Woodland Hills, Calif. – The Los Angeles Rams will hit the road again this week as they travel to the City of Brotherly Love to face the Philadelphia Eagles on Sunday at Lincoln Financial Field. The Rams enter the matchup at 1-2 following a 30-26 loss to the Denver Broncos on Sunday Night Football. Philadelphia also suffered a loss to the Chicago Bears, 27-7, on Monday Night Football. The Rams and Eagles will meet for the second consecutive season in Philadelphia, with the Eagles earning a 33-26 victory in Week 3 of the 2025 season.

The Rams will look to add to the win column after nearly completing a comeback of their own against the Denver Broncos. Los Angeles led 16-0 at halftime and held a 26-23 advantage late in the fourth quarter before the Broncos scored the game-winning touchdown with less than a minute remaining. Matthew Stafford threw for 390 yards and two touchdowns, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw 20,000+ yards for two separate franchises. Stafford's performance against Denver marked his second consecutive game with at least 300 passing yards, following his 327-yard, four-touchdown performance against New York.

Tyler Higbee scored the Rams' first touchdown of the night in the first quarter passing Red Phillips and Marshall Faulk (27) and tying Bob Boyd (28) for the 10th-most receiving touchdowns in franchise history. WR Davante Adams recorded seven receptions for 137 yards. He has totaled 332 receiving yards over the last two games after posting 195 yards and two touchdowns in the Week 2 victory over the Giants. Against the Broncos, Konata Mumfild contributed to a critical fourth-quarter scoring drive, catching three consecutive passes, including a 48-yard touchdown that gave the Rams a 26-23 lead. Kyren Williams rushed for 88 yards on 15 carries along with six receptions for 70 yards. He became the second player in the NFL this season to record at least 70 rushing yards and 70 receiving yards in a single game. Harrison Mevis put up a perfect performance converting 4-of-4 field goal attempts and 2-of-2 extra point attempts, reaching a single-game career high of four field goals made. On the defensive side of the ball, the Rams had 19 different players record tackles. Omar Speights led the team in tackles (six, three solo), and notched one quarterback hit, one tackle for loss and his first NFL regular season sack. Additionally, Josh Wallace tallied two tackles, two passes defended and an interception returned for 26 yards.

The Rams will face an Eagles team coming off its first loss of the season. Philadelphia opened the year with victories over Washington, 24-22, and Tennessee, 24-20, before falling to Chicago, 27-7, on Monday night. The Eagles have won three consecutive meetings against the Rams, including a 37-20 victory at SoFi Stadium in 2024 and a 33-26 win in Philadelphia last season. The Eagles also defeated the Rams, 28-22, in the 2024 NFC Divisional Round. Overall, Philadelphia leads the all-time series 26-20-1, while the Rams hold a 2-1 advantage in the teams' three postseason matchups since the NFC Conference was formed.

COACH 'EM UP

Rams Head Coach Sean McVay took over a team that was coming off of a 4-12 season and ranked 32nd in scoring. McVay helped transform it into the No. 1 scoring team in the league and helped secure the franchise's first NFC West title since 2003.

Due to his excellent first season and his instrumental part in revamping the Rams offense, McVay was chosen as the Associated Press Coach of the Year for 2017. He is the fourth head coach in franchise history to achieve this honor.

McVay became the youngest coach in NFL history to win the Associated Press Coach of the Year award. McVay was 31 years old during the team's final game of the season. Previously, Don Shula (34 years old) was the youngest coach to win the award.

SEAN McVAY & LES SNEAD NOTES

SEEING DOUBLE

Sean McVay has 10 postseason wins, double the number of postseason wins of any NFL coach under the age of 40. John Madden, Jon Gruden, Mike Tomlin and Zac Taylor each had five postseason wins before they turned 40. McVay turned 40 on January 24, 2026, one day before last season's NFC Championship game.

RECORDS KNOW NO AGE

Sean McVay, who turned 40 this past January, has a 93-58 regular-season record as an NFL head coach. He joins Hall of Famers Curly Lambeau and George Halas as the only head coaches in NFL history with 100 combined wins prior to turning 40.

McVAY HITS 100

Sean McVay coached his 100th career regular season game (in Week 2, 2023). He had a record of 61-39 and the fifth-highest winning percentage amongst active head coaches in their first 100 regular season games.

SUCCESS IN THE WEST

Under Head Coach Sean McVay, the Rams are 29-19 in the regular season against NFC West opponents. The Rams finished 6-0 in the NFC West during the 2018 season. The last time an NFC West team accomplished the feat was the Cardinals in 2008. It marked the first time the Rams swept the NFC West since 1999.

The Rams are 16-7 in NFC West road contests since the start of the 2017 season. The most recent road win was against the San Francisco 49ers, 12-6, at Levi's Stadium in Week 15. The Rams' record in the NFC West last season was 5-1, sweeping the Seahawks and the Cardinals.

The Rams overcame a 14-point deficit in Week 3 last season to defeat San Francisco, which was the second-largest comeback win over the 49ers in franchise history. It was also McVay's first win when trailing by 14+ points at any time during a game.

Coach Sean McVay has 15 victories over the Arizona Cardinals since 2017, the most for any coach against an NFC opponent during that span.

The Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 171-112, during the 2017 season, which was a 59-point differential. It was the highest positive point differential in the division for the Rams since 2001, when the Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 274-160, for a 114-point differential. The 2001 Rams played in a five team division and therefore had eight divisional games that season.

BLITZ BUSTER

In the 2025 season, Stafford led the NFL with 27 touchdowns against the blitz, the most by any quarterback in a single season since ESPN began tracking touchdowns against the blitz in 2006.

CONQUEROR OF THE LEAGUE

After defeating the Titans in Week 2 of 2025, Stafford has beaten 31 of the 32 NFL teams. Only four quarterbacks have beaten all 32 current franchises in the league: Peyton Manning, Brett Favre, Tom Brady and Drew Brees.

Stafford is coming off his third season with 40 or more passing scores. Those three seasons are tied for the most by any QB in NFL history along with Aaron Rodgers and Tom Brady.

NOVEMBER TO REMEMBER

In November 2025, Stafford ranked first in passing touchdowns, first in passer rating, fourth in passing yards and fifth in completions. No player accounted for more offensive touchdowns in November than Stafford with 15.

Stafford reached historical milestones while leading the Rams to a six-game win streak. He became the ninth quarterback all-time with at least 30 passing touchdowns in his team's first 11 games of a season and became eighth all-time in career passing yards passing Matt Ryan (62,792). He moved up the franchise ranks to third in career passing touchdowns and fourth in completions.

By the end of November, Stafford was writing history. He broke Tom Brady's record for the most consecutive touchdowns thrown without an interception (28) in NFL history, since 1978. Additionally, Stafford set an NFL record with 317 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, marking the longest streak in NFL history. He became the first QB in NFL history to throw 4+ touchdowns in three consecutive games and set a franchise record for touchdowns in a three-game span with 12.

OPTIMUS NINE

In Week 18 last season, Stafford completed the 5,551st pass of his career which moved him into sixth place on the NFL's all-time completed passes leaderboard. Three games into his 18th season in the league, Stafford has now completed 5,562 passes.

ONE OF A KIND

Nacua (2,077) surpassed 2,000 scrimmage yards in his 23rd career game. He became the fifth wide receiver in NFL history to reach at least 2,000 scrimmage yards in 23 games-or-fewer, joining Charley Taylor (20), Bill Groman (21), Odell Beckham Jr. (21) and Charlie Hennigan (22). He is also the fifth Rams player and first wide receiver to reach 2,000 career scrimmage yards in 23 games-or-fewer.

In his 25th game, he became the second player in NFL history to record at least 150 receptions, 2,000 receiving yards, and nine receiving touchdowns in his first 25 career games, joining Odell Beckham Jr.

In 2023, he joined Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (twice) and Lance Alworth (1964) as the only wide receivers with at least 160 receiving yards, one receiving touchdown and one rushing touchdown in a single game.

RECORD BREAKER

WR Puka Nacua recorded 10 receptions for 119 receiving yards, the most receiving yards in a rookie debut in Rams history. He is the second player drafted in the fifth round or later with 100+ receiving yards in his NFL debut.

TOUCHDOWN 'TAE

Adams' 14 touchdown receptions last season are the most by a Rams player in their first season with the team in franchise history, passing Bucky Pope's 10 in 1964. From Week 7-12, Adams recorded nine receiving touchdowns, the most over any five-game span of his career. It also ties a Rams record with Harold Jackson in 1973.

LIVING LEGEND

In 2025, Davante Adams totaled 60 receptions and 789 receiving yards for 14 touchdowns. It marked Adam's sixth consecutive season with eight or more receiving touchdowns and the ninth of his career.

Adams currently ranks in the top ten among active players in career receiving yards, receiving touchdowns and receptions.

QUARTER CENTURY, ALL-TIME GREAT

Kyren Williams had 3,635 rushing yards and 36 rushing touchdowns from 2023-2025 and ended last season at 25-years old. The only players age 25 or younger at the end of a three-year span with 3600+ rushing yards and 36+ rushing touchdowns this century are Adrian Peterson (twice, 2007-2010) and LaDainian Tomlinson (twice, 2001-2004).

HISTORIC STRETCH

Williams totaled 13 scrimmage touchdowns last season and is the sixth player since 2000 with at least 13 touchdowns in three of his first four seasons. He joins Shaun Alexander, Maurice Jones-Drew, Alvin Kamara, Adrian Peterson and LaDainian Tomlinson.

SOUND THE SIREN FOR KYREN

He had 2,000+ scrimmage yards and 20+ scrimmage touchdowns through 28 career games. The only other Rams player since 1967 to achieve those marks in 28-or-fewer games was Eric Dickerson (14 games). Williams scored a rushing touchdown in each of the first six games of the season, becoming the first Rams running back to do so since Greg Bell in 1988. He also became only the fourth running back since 2000 to accomplish the feat, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (2005), Dalvin Cook (2020) and Derrick Henry (2024).

KYREN WILLIAMS • CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

LEADING THE WAY

In Week 7 last season, he recorded his fifth game since last season with at least 50 rushing yards and multiple rushing touchdowns, tied for the most in the NFL over that span (Raheem Mostert).

Williams has scored the most touchdowns from scrimmage by a Ram in their first 25 starts (27). While climbing the all-time leader board Williams notched seven multi-touchdown games including a career best of three against the 49ers in Week 3 of 2024.

STATEMENT SEASON

In 2023, Williams became the first player with 1,000+ yards rushing and 10+ scrimmage touchdowns in his first 10 career starts since Ezekiel Elliott in 2016.

CREATING A RAMS LEGACY

In 2023, Kyren Williams scored 92 points en route to leading the team in scoring for the 2024 season. He is the first non-kicker to lead the Rams in scoring since 2018 (Todd Gurley) and the third skill-position player since 2000 to lead the way joining RBs Todd Gurley and Marshall Faulk.

Through Week 14 in 2024, Williams was one of only two position players (Jets RB Breece Hall) across the NFL to lead his team in points scored with 84.

Higbee became only the fifth tight end to record multiple touchdown receptions in every season since 2018, joining Travis Kelce, George Kittle, Mark Andrews and Dallas Goedert. Last season he recorded his 29th career game with at least five receptions, marking the 10th-most such games by a tight end since entering the league in 2016.

IN THE RECORD BOOKS

In Week 9 of 2025, Higbee extended his lead among Rams tight ends in receiving touchdowns to 26. Higbee tied Flipper Anderson in receiving touchdowns and moved to 13th in franchise history. He caught his second touchdown reception of the season, his eighth-straight season with multiple receiving touchdowns. That marks three more consecutive seasons than the next-longest streak by a Rams tight end.

In Week 6 of 2025, Higbee also passed Robert Woods (367) and moved to eighth in franchise history for receptions.

In 2023, Higbee had 72 catches for 620 yards and three touchdowns, breaking the Rams single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end. He broke his own record previously set in 2019 (69).

Additionally, he is in the top 15 in franchise history for both receptions and receiving yards.

IN A LEAGUE OF HIS OWN

At just 30 years of age, Myles Garrett stands alone as the only player in NFL History with:

- 23.0 Sacks in a Single Season
- Five Consecutive Seasons of at least 14 Sacks (2021-2025)
- Six Consecutive Seasons of at least 12 Sacks (2020-2025)
- Over 110.0 Career Sacks Under the Age of 30

Garrett became just the third reigning Defensive Player of the Year in NFL history to play the next season with a different team (Deion Sanders, 1994; Dana Stubblefield, 1997). Notably, Garrett is the only one of those three players to be traded following his Defensive Player of the Year season, as Sanders and Stubblefield both moved as free agents.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

In 2024, S Quentin Lake became the fourth Rams defensive back in franchise history to record 10+ tackles in consecutive games, joining Craig Dahl (2010), T.J. McDonald (2014) and John Johnson III (2018). He also became the first Rams player to accomplish the feat in the first two weeks to start a season. Lake is the first Rams defensive back to lead the team in total tackles in consecutive games to start the season since Adam Archuleta did so in 2002.

In Week 11 of the 2024 season, he tied a single-game career-high with 11 tackles. It was his fourth game with 10+ tackles last season. Lake (four games) now has the third-most games among Rams defensive backs with 10+ tackles, trailing John Johnson III (nine) and Taylor Rapp (seven).

In Week 16 of the 2024 season, Lake became the 11th Rams defensive back to record 100 tackles in a season and the first since Jordan Fuller in 2021. He is the second Rams defensive back to record 100 tackles in their first 15 games of a season, joining Taylor Rapp (2019). Lake finished the season ranked sixth in total tackles (111) among defensive backs. His 111 tackles are the fifth-most by a defensive back in franchise history.

SURE TACKLER

Lake has recorded five or more tackles in all four of his postseason appearances. He is one of five Rams players to do so, joining John Johnson (five games), Tommy Polley (five games), Mark Barron (four games) and Aeneas Williams (four games).
