

As the official practice facility of the Philadelphia Eagles, the Jefferson Health Training Complex features a first-class weight room and cafeteria, indoor and outdoor practice fields, draft room, auditorium, and office space.

The South Philadelphia facility has been home to the team since 2001 and serves as the host site for Eagles Training Camp, the Eagles Girls Flag Football Championships, youth football and high school practices, corporate events, and more.

